THE MESSENGER

OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

VOLUME XIII | OCTOBER, 1960 | No. 10

DAVID O. McKAY, right, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, presided at dedication of the two-million-dollar East Bay Interstake Center on Temple Hill in Oakland.

President McKay Dedicates East Bay Interstake Center

Dedicatory services for the East Bay Interstake Center at the intersection of Lincoln Ave and Warren Blvd. Freeway in northeast Oakland was held Sunday Sept. 25, at 2 p.m.

Presiding and offering the dedicatory prayer was David O. McKay of Salt Lake City, 87-year-old president of the Church, and conducting the services was O. Leslie Stone, prominent Oakland businessman and president of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake. The two other East Bay church units having joint ownership and use of the new building are the Hayward and Walnut Creek Stakes, presided over by Milton P. Ream and Norman B. Creer, respectively, both of whom also spoke. Membership in the three stakes is approximately 20,000.

The building, started in 1957, was completed and has been in use since January, 1959, but in Mormon practice an edifice is not dedicated until it is completely paid for. At the present time the church has approximately 400 buildings in various stages of construction throughout the world.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Center were held July 29, 1957 and were presided over by the late President Stephen L. Richards. Elder Richards was the guest speaker at a special "thanksgiving" meeting as the work was completed Jan. 25, 1959.

The East Bay center consists of an auditorium with a seating capacity of 2,200, and adjoining recreation hall with a capacity of 1,000 seats, a baptistry and smaller chapel, kitchens, offices, classrooms, lounge and miscellaneous rooms.

Recently installed in the main auditorium, and heard for the first time on Sept. 25 is a $50,000 pipe organ, built to order in Weikersheim, Germany. It was designed and purchased through the Pacific Organ Builders of Berkeley, in consultation with Robert Douglas, music director of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake, who was at the console. Nico D. Snell conducted the combined choirs of the three stakes in special choral numbers.

The congregation overflowed into the adjoining ward chapel and into the other rooms of the center. Ceremonies were witnessed by way of closed circuit television.

President McKay just recently celebrated his 87th birthday and is presently preparing for the 130th Semi-Annual General Conference of the Church.

San Mateo Second

Lawrence P. Holt Now in Marseilles, Is Busy Tracting

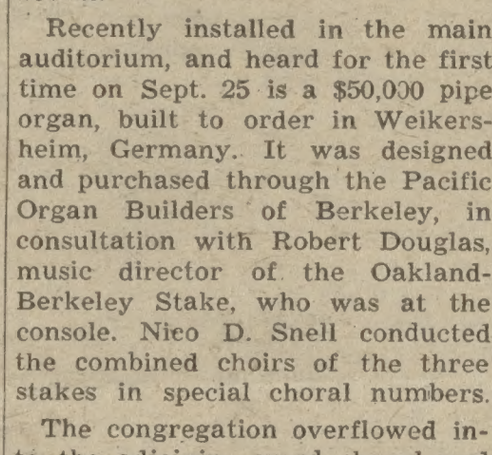
By Gladys Lemmon

Elder Lawrence P. Holt, missionary from the San Mateo Second Ward, arrived at the Paris headquarters of the French Mission the last week of August. Elder Holt entered the Mission Home Aug. 15, traveled by jet plane to Paris, and immediately began his missionary labors at Marseilles.

Prior to his departure, a Farewell Testimonial was held at the San Mateo Second Ward chapel. Larry graduated from Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, and attended the Brigham Young University for two years majoring in medicine. After his mission is completed, he plans to resume his education at the "Y".

Larry's parents, Ernest and Peggy Holt, received a letter from their son shortly after his arrival stating that in one week they had tracted 3,000 families in addition to cottage meetings, etc. They had baptized two converts to the church and for a baptismal font they used the ocean.

Larry has a sister, Loralee, who graduated from Hillsdale in 19 0 and is now employed in San Francisco; two brothers, Layne, 11, and Regan, 8; and little sister Raelynne, 3, who Elder Holt would have liked to have taken with him because he is afraid she will not remember him when he returns.



Elder Charles Fenton

San Mateo Second

Charles Fenton Has Returned From Mexico

Elder Charles Clark Fenton, son of Charles F. and Bernice Fenton of San Mateo Second Ward, has been honorably released from the Mexican Mission where he has labored for two and one-half years. On Sept. 25, the ward officially welcomed Elder Fenton at his homecoming and members and friends heard of his missionary experiences.

Elder Fenton expressed his love and appreciation for being called to preach the gospel to the remnant of the Book of Mormon people in Mexico. Mastering the Spanish language wa- a problem for him at first, but soon he was acle to converse and explain the principles of the gospel in Spanish. His missionary headquarters were in Mexico City, but he especially enjoyed his labors in Jalapa. The city was divided between a poor section and a rich section, and since it was rather primitive, they had to cross the river in small boats to work in the two areas. Many were the experiences told the missionaries by the Mexicans of folklore and traditions of their ancestors which tied into Book of Mormon history.

Charles had opportunities to visit the ruins and archaelogical findings in Mexico, but he said that greatest of all was the love and brotherhood he felt for the people among whom he worked.

Elder Fenton has enjoyed a family reunion with his parents; his sister, Joanne LeMay of San Mateo, Jean Harvey of southern California; and two aunts, Mrs. June Selleneit of Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Lamont Gooch of Seattle. He is now resuming his studies in electrical engineering at the College of San Mateo.

8 Area Youths Go Into Mission Field

Fall seems to be missionary season in the Bay area. This month we have news of ten missionaries in the Messenger. Two of these are missionaries returning home, and eight are departing for periods of service varying from 18 months to 30 months.

Representatives of the area will be reaching every corner of the globe before the month is over. Several go to France, Germany and other European countries, others to Spanish-speaking countries in Latin America and still another goes to Australia at the beginning of summer "down under."

Full details on these missionaries will be found on this page and page 2 of this month's Messenger.

Sister Wydonna Bodily

Berkeley Second

Wydonna Bodily To Leave Soon For Australia

A missionary farewell will be held Oct. 2, at 4:30 p.m. in the Berkeley Second Ward at Walnut and Vine for Wydonna Bodily prior to her departure to the Australian Mission. She will be serving in Eastern and Northern Australia and neighboring northern countries for the next eighteen months, the customary time for lady missionaries serving in English-speaking countries.

Wydonna is the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Howard L. Bodily of Kensington and sister to Margaret, Marilla, Richard, Howard and April.

She has been active in the Berkeley Young Peoples Symphony and has also played in the University Symphony Orchestra as a member of the cello section. She is a graduate of El Cerrito High School and the University of California at Berkeley. Wydonna recently completed an Internship at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland, Oregon and is now a Dietitian accredited by the American Dietetics Association.

Elder David Crockett

Hayward Ward

David Crockett Reports in Paris As Missionary

David Sanders Crockett was honored at a Farewell Testimonial Service held September 11, 1960 in the Hayward Ward. He has accepted a call to serve as a full time missionary in the French Mission. Upon completion of his course in the Mission Home in Salt Lake City, which commenced Sept. 26, he is to report to Paris, France, the Mission headquarters.

David, the son of Dr. H. Cless and Sister Vera Crockett, will be the third member of the family to serve in the French Mission. Both his father and his older brother, Richard, who completed his mission about a year and a half ago, have labored in France.

A native of Hayward, David is a graduate of Hayward High School. While there he was a member of the swimming team, earned his "Block H", and was a two year letterman. For the past two years he has attended Brigham Young University.

David is an Eagle Scout, and was the Assistant Scout Master for the ward during this past summer. His hobby is gardening.

The Crockett family have been active in the Church in the Hayward area for many years. David's father was formerly a member of the Stake High Council, and his mother is president of the Stake Relief Society.

In addition to his older brother Richard, David has an older sister, Carol Crockett Thomas, and a younger brother, Jay.

Elder Glen Edmunds, a member of the Hayward Bishopric, conducted David's testimonial service. The opening hymn, sung by the congregation, was "High on the Mountain Top," and the invocation was offered by Elder C. Reed Smith. After the Sacrament hymn, "God Our Father, Hear Us Pray," a scriptural reading was given by Jay Crockett. A vocal solo was rendered by Ruth Wilson. Remarks were made by Bishop D. Ross McClellan and Elder Harry Hollinghaus. A vocal duet was then rendered by Ruth Wilson and Gwen Crandall. After remarks by

Claremont Ward

James Barnes Is Germany Bound Will Serve for Thirty Months

By Betty Moss

A missionary farewell for Elder James Barnes was held in the Claremont Ward on Sept. 18, prior to his departure to labor in the West German Mission. The congregation heard from Douglas Ream, Gary Barnes, Jim's brother, Marvin Moss, Bishop Joseph Wood, and from Jim and his mother. Lily Blackburn sang "The Lord's Prayer." A reception was held afterward. We all send our wishes with Jim for many satisfying experiences in the next two and a half years.

Elder James Barnes

A Hawaiian Luau opened the MIA year on September 6. The Berry family entertained a large crowd with songs and dances from the islands. Sarah played the ukelele and sang while her four sons, David, Joseph, Paul, and Verlen, did the hula. Rose and LaVern also did a hula number. The Berrys demonstrated the hula while a few uninhibited souls (Frank Millward and Dean Madsen among them) tried it out themselves.

A film on Hawaii was shown afterward. The hall was decorated with greenery, Hawaiian fashion, and a delicious frozen fruit Hawaiian punch and cookies were served. Betsy Cannon was the chairman of the party.

The MIA was also in charge of the barbecue held in Joaquin Miller Park Sept. 16. They provided the meal, except that each family brought their own meat to barbecue, which ranged in variety from a vast majority of lowly hot dogs to the steaks of the Wilkins and the Thingers. A watermelon bust followed the dinner, and Kimball Hansen led the group in singing, closing with "Come, Come Ye Saints.' Marshal Stoddard and Frank Millward made all the arrangements and built those most welcome camp fires as well!

Two Claremont Ward families made the journey back to the "Y" this fall. Kirk and Emily Hart accepted a teaching position in political science at the "Y". Emily has been active in Primary, and Kirk has been loved as our Seminary teacher and as teacher of the Gospel Doctrine class. Their many friends hope for the best for them in their new home.

Joyce and Jerry Weight have returned to the "Y" to school. Jerry will take post-graduate work toward becoming a Seminary teacher. Joyce was a counselor in the Relief Society and Jerry was chairman of the Genealogy Committee. While here in the ward they were always ready to do far more than their share, and they have left many good friends here.

Everyone is looking forward to the Ward Carnival to be held Nov. 5. A night of good entertainment for all is promised by the planners.

Palo Alto Second

Elder Wheeler Uses Basketball In Proselyting

Letters from the Palo Alto Second Ward's newest missionary, Edward Wheeler, tell that his Australian mission has had an enthusiastic beginning. He has been assigned a companion in the area of Mereweather, Newcastle, New South Wales, and is playing basketball with the "Mormon Yankees." (Basketball is one phase of the missionary program in New South Wales.)

Ed's missionary farewell was held on July 31, in the Palo Alto chapel. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Curtis Wheeler. On his way to Australia from his stay at the mission home in Salt Lake City, he had a few hours lay-over between flights at the San Francisco airport, so his family and many of his friends had a brief visit with him.

Ed was born in Stoneham, Massachusetts. His family are converts to the church and Ed was baptized when he was 12 years old. He graduated from the Groton, Connecticut High School where he was "Thespian of the Year." He attended Utah State University for one year and was very active in dramatics and was a member of an entertainment group. He was studying forestry at the University and worked one summer as a forester in a trail crew in the Grand Tetons in Wyoming.

The Wheeler family moved from the East coast to the Palo Alto Second Ward just a year ago and all members are very active in the Church program. Ed has two brothers: Kenneth and Richard.

Oakland Fourth

Wayne Wood Called on Mission, Central America To Be His Home

By Darlene Johnson

Oakland 4th Ward members and friends join together on Oct. 9, to pay tribute to Elder Wayne Wood who has received a call to serve in the Central American Mission.

The good attendance record of the Aaronic Priesthood boys of the Oakland Fourth Ward won the Stake trophy for the past quarter. The boys say they hope to keep it in the trophy case for many more quarters.

Thirty-two Mutual Marrieds enjoyed a progressive dinner at their monthly social under the chairmanship of Barbara Ezra. Richard Wirthlin will give instructions to the goup on "Investments" on Oct 9.

"My soul delighteth in the song of the heart." Using this as inspiration the choir began its new year with dinner held at the Ward. Offices for the year are Irene Webb, president, and Barbara Wright, secretary. Adult enlistment will be under the direction of Barbara Ezra and Keith Porter; members of the youth enlistment committee are Henrietta Body and Jill Hawkins.

The choir is under the direction of LaPrele George with Gladys Olson as accompanist. They invite all ward members with a desire to sing to attend rehearsals each Sunday afternoon at 4:30. "The song of the righteous is a prayer unto me and shall be answered with a blessing upon their heads."

The Young Mens Mutual begins the year with new officers: Brother McKnight will serve as superintendent; Dean Hardy, age group assistant, and Morgan Lewis, secretary.

Brother Russell MacDonald was recently baptized and confirmed a member of the Church by Elder Francis Lamph.

Sister Britting presented the art of china painting at the opening social of the Relief Society. The regular meeting is held each Tuesday at 10:00 a.m.

Graduating from Primary and receiving Books of Mormon from Sister Dee Lamph, Primary president, are Sharon Spencer, Janet Tait, Bonnie Bobet, and Laura Nackos.

The young members of the YWMIA had an enjoyable time at the slumber party held in the ward recreation hall. Breakfast was served the next morning by their officers and teachers.

The elders quorum and the Genealogy committee combined forces in sponsoring a delicious ham dinner for the ward welfare project this month. The next ward dinner will be held Oct. 28.

Additional events coming up are the Relief Society rummage sale Oct. 20, the temple excursion Nov. 5, and the annual Ward Bazaar Nov. 19.

The Senior Aaronic Priesthood school is being held Thursday night of each week in the Relief Society room. The program as scheduled for October is: "The First Principles and Ordinances of the Gospel," by Richard Wirthlin Oct. 6; "Joseph Smith the Latter-day Prophet," by Lloyd George Oct. 13; "The Importance of the Book of Mormon in Building a Testimony," by Curg Johnson Oct. 20; "Church History High Lights," by Dale Roe Oct. 27. All Senior Aaronic members and their partners are invited to attend.

Elder Ronald J. Hermansen

San Mateo Second

R. J. Hermansen Returns Home

Elder Ronald J. Hermansen, son of Wilford and Mary Hermansen of San Mateo Second Ward, has been honorably released from the New Zealand and New Zealand South Missions, where he has labored for two and one-half years. Elder Hermansen was the first missionary sent from the San Mateo Stake when it was organized in September 1957, being interviewed by Elder Romney on the day the Stake was divided from Palo Alto Stake.

Ward members heard of Ronald's missionary experience Sept. 18. He told of the love he had for his missionary work and for the people of New Zealand. He expressed his gratitude and appreciation for the opportunity to fulfill a mission, and to assist for periods of time on the building of the New Zealand Temple and College. Ronald attended all eight dedicatory sessions of the Temple and actel as one of the guides to the thousands who visited the Temple prior to its dedication.

After the dedication of the Temple, the New Zealand Mission was divided and Elder Hermansen then labored in the New Zealand South Mission. For the last year he served as secretary of the Mission and worked closely with and accompanied President Alexander P. Anderson in many travels throughout the mission.

Elder Hermansen was released in May and then toured through Australia, Indonesia, Egypt, India, across the Mediterranean, through Europe to England where he sailed for home on the S.S. United States. Ronald has now resumed his studies at Brigham Young University where he is majoring in Elementary Education.

ARE YOU ATTENDING SACRAMENT MEETINGS?

San Leandro Ward

Vacation Theme For Ward Feed

By Elizabeth W. Frye

A San Leandro ward dinner was held in the ward recreation hall on Friday, August 19. The theme was "Vacation Days." Colorful posters of enchanting lands were displayed on the walls beckoning one and all to visit these interesting places. Travel brochures were varied and plentiful and added to the vacation atmosphere. The dinner was almost as varied as were the places to vacation. There was corned beef and cabbage, macaroni and cheese casserole, fresh fruit salad, garlic bread, fresh rolls, lemonade and cheese cake. The tables were decorated with ivy and beautiful flowers.

The "Mutual Marrieds" of the San Leandro Ward have been enjoying some fine get-to-gethers where there is plenty of fun and quite frequently something educational.

The first such affair was at the home of Brother and Sister Bill Callahan where a stake barbeque was enjoyed by a large group. Games rounded off the evening.

HYPNOTISM USES

The second gathering was at the home of Brother and Sister Adrian Schipper where a large group heard a very informative talk by Dr. Robert MacRoberts of Hayward, on the subject of hypnotism and its uses in the medical profession. A question and answer period followed the talk. Refreshments for the evening were pie-a-la mode and punch.

The third meeting was spent playing minature golf followed by a watermelon bust at the home of Brother and Sister Russell Heath.

The fourth meeting was at the home of Bishop Marcel Lauper. The guest speaker was Mr. Wes Bunnell, Treasurer of the San Francisco Chapter of the Sierra Club. He showed the film, "Two Yosemites" and answered questions about outdoor life, hiking, conservation, etc. Cake, ice cream and punch were served to the thirty or more present.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER

A progressive dinner was the most recent adventure of the "Mutual Marrieds." They met first at the home of Brother and Sister Frank Wakefield where a large variety of salads were served. The crowd moved on to the soup course which was served at the home of Brother and Sister George Bass.

From here the group progressed to the home of Brother and Sister Edward Painter where a selection of main course dishes were served. By now the once lively crowd was becoming a little more lethargic. They were finding it harder to make the move on to the next and final course. Sated appetites would have stopped the crowd at this stage of the dinner had it not been for the prospect of fun and organ music along with dessert at the home of Brother and Sister Carl Landon. Apple pie and pineapple juice were served, and the calorie conscious members of the group forgot their diets for the nonce.

LANDON'S IDEAS

Brother and Sister Carl Landon have been instrumental in getting the "Mutual Marrieds" program under way and planning the varied forms of entertainment. They reportedly have many more ideas up their sleeves.

A Ward reunion was held at Chabot Park by the two San Leandro Wards. Watermelons were in abundance for refreshments.

Scouting Leadership has been changed in the Ward Mutual program, and we expect renewed interest and activity from the boys. Five from our troop enjoyed a week's camping at Diamond 'O' Scout Camp (near Yosemite) where they participated in a busy program with our sister Ward, San Leandro 2nd. Robert Pendley, Michael Frye, Halmar Rose, Russell Boetes, and Rodney Jackson, all obtained merit badges and other advancements.

Knudsen-Bednar Wedding in L.A.

By Charlene Hathaway

Elder Richard Lee Bednar claimed Saundra Rochelle Knudson as his bride in the Los Angeles Temple on Sept. 16, and a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents the following day. The newlyweds left for Provo, Utah where Richard will continue his education at the Brigham Young University.

Many young people of the San Leandro Second Ward are also leaving for the BYU. Pat Cheney left Sept. 19, with her parents, also Linda Large and Marilyn Waters will be attending as freshmen this year. The Harold P. Hansens just returned from taking Tom back for his freshman year. Jerry Bauer drove back with the Hansens. Rosemary Ostler left towards the end of the month. Stanley Ness and Scott Hathaway also left after the Bednar wedding to enter their senior year at the "Y".

Sister Rena Ruff is recuperating at home after a few days illness in the Eden Hospital.

A temple excursion Sept. 10, was enjoyed by the following members: Sister Helen Canning, Sister Bankhead, the LeRoy Bauers, the LaRue Duffins, and Brother Glen Elliott.

A ward Welfare dinner was held on Sept. 23, at 6:30 p.m.

Don Fulton was recently ordained an Elder.

Livermore Ward

Changes Made In Ward Leaders

By Willy C. Sorensen

The Livermore Ward Bishopric, Sunday School Superintendency and Relief Society Presidency were reorganized last month.

Released from the Bishopric were first counselor Max Poulsen and second counselor David Cummings. In their places Bishop Behling chose Seymour Murray as his first counselor and Ernest Hertig as second counselor. Dave is moving to Danville and Max is moving to San Jose.

Last month the Sunday School Superintendency was released. Moulton Simmons had been the Superintendent for almost five years. He was assisted by Clifford Sorensen and Marshall Ihrig. The new Superintendent is William Silver. He has chosen Duane J. Turner as first assistant, and L. Dean Christensen as second assistant.

The Relief Society reorganization saw Sister Evelyn Foster released as President, along with Sister Jone Davis, first counselor, and Pat Stowell, second counselor.

The new Relief Society officers are Sister Irma Nielson, President, Sister La Vonne Hertig, first counselor, and Clementina Ronney, second counselor.

New babies in the ward are: Brother and Sister Wesley Thomas —a son. Brother and Sister Larry McGrew—a girl.

Former Messenger Editor

Jean Paulson Is Recognized In Nat'l Magazine

Jean R. Paulson, new chairman of the Brigham Young University Journalism Department, is author of an article in the September issue of Quill, a magazine for journalists.

With the title "Listeners Applaud All-News Radio," the article describes the operation of Station KFAX in San Francisco where Mr. Paulson has been editorial director until coming to BYU.

The article describes how the owners planned carefully for months to make a big impression in the area with their new type operation. Also Mr. Paulson explains the schedule of the staff of nine newsmen to keep things going on a station which eats up tremendous quantities of news copy. It programs only news all day.

Mr. Paulson has been news executive with various California newspapers for the past 25 years. He resigned as managing editor of the Berkeley Daily Gazette to try his hand at the radio job. He also has been managing editor of the Palo Alto Times, San Luis Obispo Telegram - Tribune, Santa Rosa Press Democrat, city editor of Sacramento Union and the Provo Daily Herald and worked on the staffs of Salt Lake City newspapers.

Irvington Ward

Irvington Ward Spaghetti Feed Fattens Members and Ward Funds

By Nyle Seavers

Irvington Ward had a spaghetti dinner Sept. 9, to raise funds. Donna Green handled the entire evening. Several door prizes were won and the wishing well table decorations were sold. The candy the Bee Hive girls sold was to start building a camp fund for the girls for next summer.

Several new members have been added to our MIA board. Gaylene Vincent is the new 1st year Bee Hive teacher, Ravena McFadden is the 2nd year Bee Hive teacher and Wilma Steadman is Age Group counselor. Lu Jean Harward is Organist and Janie Furhee is secretary in the YWMIA. Dick Van Ry is Explorer advisor, Lawrence Gilbert is Dance Director and Lar in Smith is Secretary in the YMMIA.

Jerry Rigby is the new Primary President and Myrtle Groesback is a counselor. Joy Van Ry has been called as a Primary teacher.

ORIGINAL PLAY

The play "Never My Darling Again" will be presented Oct. 14, by the Mutual Marrieds MIA class. This will be a fund-raising event and class members ask everyone's support.

The play is an original comedy. Ray Williams, Wally Seavers, Donna Green, Alan McFadden, Wilma Steadman, Carleton Rowe, Sharon Bronson, Gloria Gunn, Shirley Jones and Nyle Seavers are the cast members.

Larry Chambers and Velma Richardson are feeling better after having been ill. Nancy Middleton is back on the "well" list also.

The Mutual had a month of parties in August. Hiking, dancing, watermelon bust and a sports night. Now MIA begins the new year with a program even bigger and better than ever. The MIA leaders say that they would like to see all those of Mutual age every Monday at 7:15.

Franz and Rose Winkel spent a brief vacation in Hawaii only to become ill on their return and to find Rose Marie had knocked out a front tooth during their absence. Mac is sporting a cast for a badly sprained ankle. Bad luck certainly found the Winkel home.

ATHLETE RICHARD

Richard Winkel is back at the Brigham Young University on an athletic scholarship. David Knight is at Oregon State College and after completing his studies will be a Lt. J. G. in the Navy. We will miss both of these fine young men.

The Mutual Married Group had a pot luck dinner and swimming party at the home of Ken and Wilma Steadman August 19.

The High Priests Social was held at the Wally Seavers home in August. Ray Williams showed slides taken during his mission to France and his tour of Europe following his mission.

The Bishop extends a special welcome to all the new members in the ward and invites them to all meetings. Priesthood meeting Sunday at 7:30 a.m., Sunday School at 9:00, and Sacrament Meeting at 2:30. Primary is Thursday at 4:30. Relief Society is Thursday at 9:30 and MIA Monday at 7.15.

Joyce Hoover Wed in Temple

In rites solemnized on August 19th, Brigham Young University stndents, Miss Joyce Arlene Hoover and Leslie J. Bell, Jr., were united in marriage. Elder Richards performed the rites in the Salt Lake Temple with the parents of the bride attending.

Joyce is the daughter of Brother and Sister John H. Hoover of Castro Valley. Mr. Bell is the son of Mrs. Ruth Bell of Salt Lake City.

After a California honeymoon, the young couple returned to Provo, where Leslie has resumed his studies. He plans to take graduate work in dentistry in California next year.

Brother and Sister Hoover were hosts at a reception where Joyce's many friends met her husband and wished the young couple happiness.

The Hoovers also have a son, Ralph, 18, who is attending Diablo Valley Jr. College in Concord.

Walnut Creek Ward

School Bells Call Collegians Away from Home to Books & Study

By Lois H. Butler

Many young people of the Walnut Creek Ward have left for college. At the "Y" will be Joyce Morgan, who graduated last year in Human Development and Family Relations and is doing graduate work so she can teach elementary grades Lucy Christiansen and Linda Skidmore are juniors; Victor Finnell, Ronnie Green, Diane Skidmore, and Linda Hamilton are freshmen.

Kay Christiansen has retu ned to Fresno State as a sophomore; Paul Clark will be a Junior at Cal Poly Tech at San Luis Obispo, and Saundra Nelson is a senior at the University of Utah. Sydney Rogers is attending Stanford for her first year college. Patricia Monaco is in the last semester of her sen'or year at the University of Ca'ifornia and is majoring in Anthropology. Attending Junior College as freshmen are Janice Marker, Linette Gengler, and Leland Nelson.

SEMINARY BEGINS

Seminary has gotten off to a good start with students intent on gaining much from it. Twenty-one students attend with five from the ward going to other seminaries. The course will consist of a comprehensive study of nearly all phases of the Gospel, including units in the early Christian Church and the apostasy,, missionary methods and procedures, genealogy and temple work. Physical facilities have improved with the addition of a cabinet for books, and table arm chairs for each student. Dennis Neilson is Seminary president with Donald Jewkes as vice president.

The Mutual has been re-organized with Elaine Smith, president, Donna Curtis, activity counselor, Adeline Schow as secretary. Vernett Jones is the Mia Maid teacher. Ross Peterson is age-group and Thurrell Mortenson activity counselors. Donald B. Jewkes will assist as Explorer Leader. Vernon Jensen will teach the Ensigns in addition to his ward clerk duties. The opening party was held under the direction of the new leaders. The Mia Maids brought their mothers to Mutual to introduce the program to them and to the new girls. Betty Jean Gerdes who is giving up Mia Maid work to teach Primary was a guest.

The monthly Relief Society work meeting luncheon was held at the home of Reva Smith. Fern Hahn is the new work director The opening social will be Sept. 27 at 12:30. The Relief Society women served luncheon to 20 Elders who were meeting with President and Sister Pugh in a one day bi-monthly conference.

FUN FAIR

The Relief Society had charge of the Stake Fun Fair booth and sold out everything, doing very well. The items all included walnuts as nut candy, carmelized apples rolled in nuts, shelled and unshelled nuts. Jim Humecky, High School senior, was kept busy doing pencil portraits. By the way Jim works after school until around midnight and still gets up for seminary.

The Primary has started its fall program. There are 164 children on the Primary roll and although the attendance is good the Primary workers would like to reach every child. Their motto for the year is "Not one child will be lost." A Primary Convention will be held by the General Board at the Inter-Stake Center Oct. 15.

Mary Baugham, a new member of the ward is Sunday School teacher of the five year olds.

D.U.P. MEETS

The Daughters of the Utah Pioneers held their opening meeting Sept. 28, at the home of Irma Bledsoe. The lesson on the handcart company and those who came to Utah in 1860 was given by Virginia Muir. All women with an ancestor on their maiden line who entered the Territory of Utah before the railroad, are eligible and invited to attend.

Darrell and Marjean Williams announce the birth Sept. 7, of their little daughter. This is their fifth child and third girl.

The ward welcomed several new families who have moved in recently. They are Glen Lamar and Mark Arnold; Arlene Fay Starr; Lucy M. Hull; Lawrence Darrel and Leah Ballantyne, with two children; Paul B. and Marjean Paulsen North, with two small children; Leo J. Hepworth and his son Richard Steven; Washburn M. Chipman; Gary Dee and Vernett Jones. Nellie Cook Mann has come to live with her son Stanley Mann.

Walnut Creek Gets First Eagle

Post 311 Explorer Ronald M. Green became the first Eagle Scout in the Walnut Creek Ward on Sept. 18th, receiving this honor at Sacrament meeting.

The award was made by District Scout Executive Henry Blaylock, who was introduced by Troop 211 Scout Chairman A. Glenn Spencer.

Ronald is 17 and the son of Max and Bertha Green of 2153 Youngs Court, Walnut Creek. He is a Priest and holder of five successive Aaronic Priesthood Individual Awards. He also holds the Duty to God award and is the second boy in the Walnut Creek Ward to receive this honor.

In his scouting activities Ronald has served as patrol leader, Explorer post secretary, explorer post president and junior scout leader. All of his scouting has been with Troop 211 and Explorer Post 311.

Ronald is a fine piano player and formed his own Combo during his junior and senior years in high school. They took part in several talent shows and also played for dances. He graduated from Las Lomas High in Walnut Creek in June and is now enrolled at Brigham Young University.

Two Receptions For D.T. Silvers

By Yvonne Seidl

At home in San Lorenzo after their honeymoon in Salt Lake City, Utah and Las Vegas, Nevada are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Taylor Silver. (Marilyn McDonald). They were married August 15, in the Salt Lake Temple. The bride and groom were honored at receptions in Salt Lake City and San Lorenzo. A luncheon at the Hotel Utah immediately followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Silver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McDonald of 4501 Sequoia Road, Oakland; and Mr. Silver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson Silver of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Following the Temple ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silver. On their return home they were honored by a reception at San Lorenzo, given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald.

Attending the bride was Joan McDonald, as Matron of Honor. Best man was James Gailard McDonald.

Marion has two children, Nancy and Danny, by a former marriage.

Castro Valley Ward

Family Dinners For Ward Funds

By Lillian Sorenson

A family dinner was enjoyed on Sept. 9 on the patio of the new Castro Valley Ward building. Sister Marie Roe has been selected to head these dinners, which will be given the second Friday of every month.

Marie says as soon as the kitchen is ready for use, she plans on having some good meals: fried chicken, roast beef with brown gravy, mashed potatoes, and everything that goes with good meals.

Sister Roe said, "I believe if these dinners are planned and cooked properly, and served while hot and tasty, that the people who attend will find that this is something to look forward to. It will stimulate the family spirit and bring a closeness not possible to attain when the Castro Valley ward was so large. It will give the mothers an opportunity to have one evening a month when they can get out of the kitchen and still feed the whole family for a very small amount of money. Then, too, with the money going to pay off our building debt, we are serving the Lord in the most enjoyable way I can think of—by eating!"

Two more things which Marie is striving toward: eliminating standing in line, and good, wholesome family entertainment.

BUILDING FUND

Since the proceeds from these dinners go to the Building Fund, the Bishop urges all to make this what the name implies: a "family" dinner.

The Roe family has figured in the news recently. An article headed "Baton twirler, 8, wins National Prize" appeared in a local paper recently:

"Darlene Roe, eight-year-old baton twirler, won first in the beginners division and second in intermediate competition at the U.S. Twirling Association contest at San Mateo.

"Miss Roe, a member of the Valley Aristo-Kats baton group, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Roe of 9065 Hillside Drive."

Robert Roe, 10, has also made a name for himself in the Hayward Junior Marines. This parade unit marched in competition at Napa, clearing the way for participation in the late September state finals at Santa Clara. The group won a total of $55 in prize money by taking first place in parade and field competition as well as taking the highest score the group has ever had: 92.55.

Darlene and Robert are grandchildren of Elder Oscar Fontano of the Alameda Ward.

BROKEN HIP

Sister Isabella Marr, mother of Sister Nell Smith, suffered a broken hip. She is presently in the hospital, but plans to convalesce at the home of her daughter, Sister Marge Silver, of Centerville. Doctors say she will be incapacitated for about three months.

For her work in promotion and publicity in connection with Leadership Week, Nell Smith was given a book as a token of appreciation by Dr. Harold G. Clark, dean of the Off-Campus College, Brigham Young University. Nell has been chosen to head the publicity again next year.

On the first Sunday of September the daughter of Brother and Sister William F. Kirkpatrick was blessed by Bishop Mudge and his counselors and given the name of Tammie Marie. Tammie, born on April 4th, is the fourth child in the Kirkpatrick family.

NO DRY EYES

There were few dry eyes in Fast and Sacrament meeting in September. Miss Rose Marie Cudd was comfirmed as a member of the Church. This young lady was baptized by her fiance, Garth Ludwig, Jr., and confirmed by her future father-in-law, assisted by Bishop Mudge and Elders Gore and Cook.

The young couple plans a Temple marriage next September. Garth is presently attending Oakland City College.

Two Pioneer Women Celebrate Birthday Number Ninety-three

Birthday number 93 comes Oct. 17, for Christine Wardell of 175 Borica Street, San Francisco. Honoring her will be her friend, Mrs. Mary Grow of 1530 Funston Ave., who was 85 Aug. 10.

The lives of these two ladies have had many parallels. They met and became fast friends 52 years ago in Cove, Oregon. Both had been widowed when young with large families to raise. They worked together in the Oregon fruit orchards to support their children. They have always been devoted workers in the Church and were visiting teaching companions in the Relief Society for many years. They worked together in the Primary and each has been Relief Society President with the other as counselor. Later on, their friendship ties became family ties when Christine's daughter, Beatrice, married Mary's son, W. Fred Grow.

Christina Wardell was born in Panaca, Nevada, one of the pioneer settlements directed by Brigham Young. She remembers this little town as dirty, hot and barren. She helped her mother earn a meager living by washing and cooking for the men in the area. Her greatest fear was the Indians. One day when she and her sister were alone, Indians came prowling into their home. The two little girls hid under a window but were soon found. An Indian, seeing her terror said, "Me no hurt you, me want bread!" She had no bread so she gave him some flour and after that he was always friendly to her family. She has never lost her fear of them however.

She remembers watching the Pony Express and stage coaches stop at the Panaca Hotel and she visited Salt Lake City when the Temple was being built. 'Sina' was unable to attend school until she was almost twelve years old when the family moved to Parowan, Utah. She still remembers how happy she was when she was able to read her first sentence, "The pup ate the bun."

She has a good memory and recites long poems memorized when she was a girl. Only last year she recorded on tape several very long poems, among them "The Liberty Bell" and "The Polish Boy."

Mrs. Mary Grow was born in Harrisville, Utah, and has vivid memories of early day history. She has heard all of the Presidents of the Church from John Taylor on. She was called to be a Sunday School teacher when twelve years old and remembers cooking dinner for Karl G. Maeser who was a guest in her home at that time. He praised her cooking and her devotion in being a Sundey School teacher and Secretary when so young.

Mary attended the Logan temple dedication with her sweetheart, David Grow, and they were married there later. She remembers visiting Pocatello, Idaho, when it was chiefly an Indian settlement. She also was afraid of the red men and remembers how they admired her sister's long black hair.

Sister Grow is at present living with her daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Lambert, and Sister Wardell lives with her daughter, Mrs. W. Fred Grow.

Balboa Second

Temple Bells For 2 Couples

By Lona Hawkins

Robert Taylor, son of George and Ellen Taylor was married in the Los Angeles Temple to Marion Samuelson of Mission Ward. They were accompanied to Los Angeles by Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Taylor, and Mrs. Samuelson.

Also on Sept. 3, Beth Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Webster, was married to Jan Iverson. Both couples will make their homes in Balboa Second Ward.

The Relief Society held the opening social for 1960 on Sept. 27. A large group attended, full of enthusiasm for the year ahead after summer vacation.

The Sunday School played host to the ward Sept. 19, at a progressive dinner. The first stop was at the home of John and Ednah Breckon. The group moved on to the home of Ted Johnson, and ended the evening at the home of Brooks Cope.

Dennis Allen was released as a Sunday School teacher, and Dick Cook, who recently graduated from BYU was sustained in his place.

The Relief Society made several changes in their roster of teachers. Those released were Ann Mellum. Theology teacher, because she is now one of the Stake Missionaries; Gladys Crawford, visiting teacher supervisor, and Marie Pack, Social Science teacher, because she moved from the ward. Those sustained were Gladys Crawford, theology teacher; Ellen Taylor, visiting teacher supervisor; Edna Swift, organist; and Bobby Loveridge, social science teacher.

Sister Florence Galbraith and Sister Mongelluzzo both died this month.

Sister Mongeluzzo was a member of our ward for a short time, but she was heard several times to remark that she had not known that there was a Church with the teachings and activities that we have, and how very happy she was that she found the true Church in time to be baptized into it during her lifetime.

Hildred Hardy Mongelluzzo was born June 13, 1891, in Santa Barbara, California. She was baptized in the spring of 1960. She died in San Francisco. Her funeral was held at Ganter, Felder & Kenny on Sept. 15, and she was buried Sept. 16. She is survived by one daughter, Edwina Koss, and one sister, Hazel Deardorff or Oregon.

We will have a story about Sister Galbraith next month.

Hawaiian Troupe on U.S. Tour Raise Funds for Stake Fund

By Echo May

K. O. Soong and his 24-member troupe of Hawaiian professional fund-raisers and entertainers from Kauai, traveled all over the U.S.A., even to the Hill Cumorah pageant before arriving in San Francisco for the $10.00 a plate stake building-fund dinner and entertainment.

The next Monday, Aug. 29, this Hawaiian group was invited to the home of Syd Caro for an American Luau with fish, poi and all the fixings. In appreciation, the troupe put on a special entertainment for their hosts: The Caros, Clarks, Glews, Goodriches, Greens, Mairs, and Yoshinakas.

The Salt Lake Temple was the Aug. 24 rendezvous of the David Alger family. They drove from San Francisco to Salt Lake: David, Mozelle and five of their six children—Sharon, David Jr., Stephen, Sandra and Philip. Philip said, that all they did was "ride and ride and eat and eat."

In Salt Lake they were met by David's mother, Harriett Alger from Mission Ward, his sister, Lois, and his brother, Don and wife, Selma, of Milford, Utah.

NOTHING STRANGE

Mozelle said, "I had a feeling that I had gone through the Temple before. There was nothing strange about the experience, and the children looked like little angels in the sealing room."

From the temple, they went to Milford, Utah, to visit "down on the farm" with Don and family, then returned, as they had come, by car. One flat tire made them realize, they were traveling on earth and not enjoying a heavenly dream.

The whole Richard Lloyd family was baptized Sept. 3. On Fast Sun., Richard Worswick Lloyd Jr., son of Richard Lloyd and Ila Hatch, and his wife, Donna Jeanette Sonflieth, daughter of Donald Sonflieth and Thelma Gellatly, were confirmed members of the Church by full-time missionaries Elders Gary Williams and Robert Lee Parchment, respectively.

The four children: Frederick Thomas, the twins, Harley Llewellyn and Harlan Louis, and Marjorie Faith were blessed by Bishop Thomas Call, Elders Gary Williams and Robert Parchment and Bro. David Alger Sr., in that order.

The Los Angeles Temple pilgrimage, Fri., Sept. 9, sponsored by San Francisco Ward, included Phyllis Goodrich, Bishop and Mrs. Call, Mary Morrison, Michael and Ruth Yoshinaka and others. David Alger and his wife, Mozelle, flew to Los Angeles Sept. 7, on business and joined the temple group at the temple and returned with them.

Millie Honn of San Francisco Ward and Mavis Keller of San Bruno gave a Proxy Baby Shower on Sept. 9, for Everly Glew Powell, now living in the state of Washington. Kenneth and Hilma Glew drove to Washington to welcome the new arrival there when it arrives.

"Bob" Clark will be in Fort Lee, Va., for three months schooling in the service while Ethel, our Relief Society President, carries on her good work.

CHRISTMAS SINGERS

Millie Honn, Phyllis Goodrich, Jane Wood, Donna McLean, Verna Call and Varena Lambert of San Francisco Ward are adding their voices to the Christmas Concert given by the San Francisco Stake Women's Chorus. This musical feast, directed by Jean Lauper, is a stake fund-raising affair to help the women of the wards of the stake to put in their share along with their men, laboring on the new stake building.

Erick Lee, son of Lawrence Benson Lee and Marilyn Joyce Curley, born July 27, in Vernal, Utah, was blessed by his father.

Christine Ah Nin, former San Francisco Ward Relief Society president, and Johnnie Holiona, enjoyed a months vacation with Christine's sister Mary, and her husband Walter Winkle, in Arcata, California.

Menlo Park Ward

Elder Kimball at First Conference Held In New Palo Alto Stake House

By Nelle K. Hughes

Elder Spencer W. Kimball presided Sept. 11 at the first quarterly conference to be held in the new Palo Alto Stake House, which serves also as the Menlo Park Ward Chapel. An open house was held on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 9 and 10, at which time several hundred people went on directed tours of the building. Stake missionaries directed the tours and showed the facilities to all visitors.

Included in the building are: Stake president's office, High Council room, two Bishops' offices, two Ward Clerks' offices and a Stake Clerk's office, a senior chapel seating 365, double windowed quiet rooms on each side, a spacious Junior Sunday School chapel, upholstered pews in both chapels, baptismal font, Relief Society room, large kitchen, two library rooms, Aaronic priesthood room, large recreation hall, large stage with commercial lighting facilities, large lounge, 26 class room areas, men's and women's locker rooms and showers, large inner patio and outer patio. A 17-rank pipe organ is being made in Germany and will be installed when completed. 200 automobiles may be parked on the grounds off the street.

WARD FORMED

Menlo Park Ward was formed by dividing Palo Alto Ward in 1952. Keith E. Garner was sustained as bishop with Leon P. Hovik and Hugh West as counselors. In 1955 Hugh West moved to the east and George D. Hughes was sustained as 2nd counselor. In the spring of 1956 a beautiful landscaped site located on the corner of Valpariso and Arbor Road in Menlo Park was purchased. The property covering an area of three acres was improved with a large residential building, a combined garage and caretakers apartment and lawns, trees, flowers and shrubs. The large home was converted into a chapel and class rooms by removing the walls separating the large family room, dining room and three minor rooms on the ground floor. The bedrooms were converted into class rooms and library. The garage was converted into the Junior Sunday School chapel.

The new chapel was started in Sept., 1959, and completed in July. Bishop Keith E. Garner was the contractor and guiding spirit. The landscaping with automatic sprinkler system will be completed soon.

NEW PATRIARCH

Brother George D. Hughes was released Aug. 28 as a counselor to Bishop Garner and Llewellyn P. Leigh was sustained as the 2nd counselor. At the conference on Sept. 11, Brother Hughes was sustained as Patriarch for the Palo Alto Stake.

The Dunham family, Scott, Mary and their daughter Rose Mari, recently returned from touring Europe. Menlo Park Ward members will enjoy the fruits of the trip, as Rose Mari, traveling with the BYU spent two weeks in England working on family genealogy and studying methods of doing English genealogical research. She will share this valuable information during her genealogy classes this fall and winter.

Saturday Sept. 2, a group of singers presented an "Hawaiian Holiday" to benefit the Menlo Park Ward building fund. The nearly all LDS group consisted of 28 members from the island of Kaui, where they are well known for their entertaining in the Coco Palms Hotel. Previous to their Menlo Park appearance they had been touring the U.S., and had made a special stop at the Hill Cumorah Pageant, Palmyra, New York.

Last month the Mutual sponsored a swimming party at Ladera. Volleyball and ping-pong were played. After the activities hot dogs and root beer were served to the group.

ROADSHOW STAGGED

MIA staged its annual Roadshow "Gepetto's Dream" in the recreation hall Aug. 12, on the general theme of "Fairy Tales and Fantasy." An interesting story of an immigrant's dream for his young son, written by Helen Blood and directed by Dorthy Chapin and Don Snow.

September was a month of new beginnings for a group of Menlo-Atherton June graduates who will begin their college careers. Janna Osmond attends the University of California at Berkeley, Vicki Andrews, Kit Fox and Ann Johnson enrolled at San Jose State, Bonnie Elton at Foothills Junior College. John Lindsay followed family tradition by registering at Utah State University in Logan. Barbara Hoge found quite a few familiar faces at BYU. Returning to BYU were Lynn and Wally Baker, Jerry Benson, David Carr, Judy Chapin, Dorothy and Beverly Crofts, Diane Jarrard, Una Kay Lee, Douglas Mackay and Darleen Moore.

Temple Wedding for Marion Samuelson & Robert A. Taylor

Marion Samuelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Samuelson of Mission ward, and Robert G. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Taylor of Balboa II ward were married Sept. 3 in the Los Angeles Temple.

After the ceremony Orval and Sonja Taylor gave a dinner in honor of the couple. The bride's mother, Donna Samuelson, and the groom's parents, Ellen and George Taylor, participated in this occasion.

A reception in honor of the couple was held Sept. 17, at the Mission Ward recreation hall where the young couple received congratulations from their families and friends.

The Taylors are at home to their friends at 499 Hillside Blvd., Daly City.

Woodminster Players To Present Show On Interstake Stage

By Dora Friedrich

The Oakland Civic Light Opera Company, featuring the Woodminster Players, will present the operetta "The Gypsy Baron" in the Inter-Stake Center Oct. 28 and 29, with curtain time at 8:30 oclock.

John M. Falls, producer-director of the company, says this new theatre is the best to be found in the entire East Bay. He promises a program in the Woodminster tradition, complete with lovely costumes, outstanding music and lavish staging.

Pleasant Hill Ward has made the arrangements for this presentation as part of its building fund program.

All seats are reserved, and tickets may be purchased through any regular box office, or by calling Burt Daniels, ticket chairman, at MU. 2-5611.

Walnut Creek Ward

Scouts Forge into Wilderness, Hike 82 Miles on 2-Week Trip.

Carrying packs on their backs, 29 boys of Scout Troop 211, Walnut Creek Ward, hiked 82 miles to climb Mount Whitney, cross Forrester Pass, Glenn Pass, and camp at Ray Lakes. Scoutmaster Tony Clark and Assistant Scoutmaster Lester Swayze were with the boys on the two week trip. Phillip Dalby and Stake Clerk Stanley Weeks were with the boys the first week and then came home as President Jensen joined the group for the second week.

Many hiking, camping, and cooking merit badges were earned by the boys. On Aug. 19, the Park Ranger featured the boys on his campfire program, mentioning their activities and having them sing on the program.

Phillip Dalby took movies of the trip with sound track added to the film. The advance physical training taken by the boys showed in the excellent condition in which they covered the 82 miles. The boys were brought home from King's Canyon by their parents. All expenses of the trip were paid by the Troop in money earned by a Christmas Tree Sale and other events during the year.

GOLD RUSH TRIP

The Scouts spent Sept. 9 and 10, on a Gold Rush Trip. They floated down the American River on their mattresses, panned for gold and slept on the beach.

There will be a Court of Honor Oct. 7, in honor of Scoutmaster Tony Clark who is now part of the Danville Branch Mutual. He has been scoutmaster, assistant scoutmaster, and scout committeeman for many years in Walnut Creek Ward and in other wards. The movie of the hiking trip will be shown on this night. There will be a dinner, program, and many awards given out.

FIRST EAGLE SCOUT

Ronald Green received the first Eagle Scout award given in Walnut Creek Ward Sept. 17. The Troop has made fine progress and is looking forward to several other Eagle Scout awards. A dozen boys are studying First Aid, a requirement for Eagle Scout, and will be checked out on this soon by Dr. Preston Thompson. Scout Committee Chairman A. Glenn Spencer thinks there will be several other Eagle Scouts before long.

Assistant Scoutmaster Lester Swayze just returned from a ten-day Wood Badge training course at Schaefer Lake. This is a regional training course and included leaders from 5 or 6 states. One leader was selected from each district to attend.

San Lorenzo Second

Barbeque Coming Soon

By Virginia Ringwood

Primary officers and teachers of San Lorenzo Second Ward and their husbands will be honored at a barbecue Oct. 14, by the Primary presidency in appreciation of the work they have done.

The event will be held at the home of Sister Renee Taylor.

Sister Mildred Tangren has been sustained as president of the YWMIA. She will be assisted by Jean Ely, age group counselor; Rita Jackson, activity counselor and James Tangren, welfare secretary.

In a recent reorganization of the Fifth Elder's Quorum, Earl Remington was sustained as president; Bill Meine and George Schueller, counselors and John Vastine, secretary.

CARE OF SICK

Lessons on taking care of the sick in the home will be given by Ann Mountford, Registered Nurse, at Relief Society meetings throughout the year beginning in October.

Winifred Hill has been released as Children's Friend Magazine Chairman and has been replaced by Josephine McPhee.

At a recent Sacrament meeting, four Seagull Girls graduated into Mutual. The girls were Vicky Roth, Joan Nickolette, Michelle Phillips and Aleta Hills.

Certificates of graduation were presented to the young ladies by Bishop Carter. Sweet Pea corsages were presented by Sister Lois Debenham, primary president. Sister Bertha Berger, Stake Primary President, spoke to the girls on "What Primary Means to Girls."

A welcome into the Mutual by Sister Mildred Tangren climaxed the ceremony.

A welcome into Trail Building ceremony was held recently with the Blazers as guests of honor, the Trekkers as hosts and the Guides and parents as guests.

Special guests were the Primary presidency, Sisters Debenham and Taylor and Brother Merritt Bodenhammer, counselor from the Bishopric.

The Trail Building program, the trail to the Priesthood, was explained to the parents.

Group teachers include Shirley Lucas, Trekker teacher; Margaret Beatty, Blazer teacher; Val Taylor, leader of the Guides and Renee Taylor, teacher of the Trail Builders.

San Mateo Second

Double Honors For Christenson

Wendell B. Christenson, Sr. of San Mateo Second Ward recently received double honors from his Financial Industrial Fund organization, according to an announcement from W. F. Morey, General Sales Manager of FIF Associates, Inc. He was promoted to the position of Division Manager and, during the same period, his individual production made him eligible for membership in the President's Club.

President's Club membership is one of the company's highest individual awards for outstanding production records in the distribution of Financial Industrial Fund shares and investment programs and shares of Financial Industrial Income Fund.

Christenson is a representative of FIF Associates, Inc., the direct public distributing organization for both funds. Financial Industrial Fund is a $180 million investment company, now in its 26th year of business, with investor-shareholders in every state in the United States and many other countries.

The basis for qualification for the President's Club was new business cash volume exceeding the minimum requirement of $125,000 during the calendar year.

Elder Christenson teaches seminary in the San Mateo-Burlingame group. He and his wife have four adult sons and daughters. They are Wendell B. Christenson, Jr., Andrew, Suzanne and Diane.

Rodeo Ward

New People In Ward Jobs

By Emily Lidtka

Gordon Howes, a new arrival in Rodeo Ward, has taken over the duties of general secretary of the Senior Aaronic priesthood. His wife, Beth, has taken a Sunday School class.

This month has been one of constant changes in our organizations. In Sunday School we have Ray Robinson, Ronald Zellar, Joan Osborn and Beth Howes. In Primary the new teachers are Opal Marr, Shirley Baker, Leli Robinson and Artha Lubeck. In Mutual Elaine Hamblin was released as chairman of the educational committee and Reah Criddle was selected to replace her.

Leli Robinson and Margaret Majestic are the new Mutual teachers. Diane Nueman is assistant to the ward chorister. William and Hazel Hunt are on the finance committee.

Mary Ellen Rice and Susan Laurie Pryor were baptized and confirmed last month.

The Don Hamblin family have just returned from a vacation, which was highlighted by a trip through the Los Angeles temple. Sue and Jimmy did numerous baptisms for the dead. From Los Angeles the Hamblins went to Mexico and Catalina.

Ferman Williams and Dale Jonte were ordained Deacons this month. New officers in the Deacon's Quorum are; Dave Pryor, president, Mike Lubeck, 1st counselor, Otto Rasmussen, 2nd counselor and Norman Radcliffe, secretary. Advancements in the priesthood are Mike Bruce, Phil Gowans and Larry Severson as teachers, Dave Redmon, Steve Hudson and James Banford were ordained priests.

The Relief Society rummage sale was a success and most of the proceeds went to the building fund. The Mutual is planning a similar sale on October 5 and 6, in Richmond.

Rodeo Ward chapel is beginning to take form and workmen and workwomen are needed daily. On Saturdays the women are serving hot lunches to all those working on the chapel, so a double treat is available if you show up for work on Saturdays.

Fish Nets Say "Aloha" to Mutual In Berkeley First Opening Party

By Dixie Wood

Fish nets, revealing their catch of imitation fish, decorated the ceiling of the Berkeley First Ward recreation hall at the MIA's "Aloha Dance." Refreshments served were various types of melons served in real Hawaiian luau style, Hawaiian punch and cupcakes baked by Charlene Jensen and Dorothy Perry.

In the spirit of the Hawaiian theme, the girls dressed in mu-mus, wearing two leis, one of which each girl presented to a fellows in welcome to the dance. The floorshow, presenting a Hawaiian dance and a skit, concluded with an introduction of the four Beehive Girls entering Mutual this year, Vicki Hughes, Barbara Duker, Carla King, and Clair Gardner. These four girls, with their partners, led the dancing as it commenced after intermission.

With only five officers remaining in the YWMIA organization from last year, new officers and teachers for the current season include Charlene Jensen, Beehive I Group Leader, Miriam Osmond, Beehive II, Linda Olson, Laure's, Beryl Harmon, Speech Director, Connie Sparks, Assistant Speech Director, Cherie Tower, Dance, Mardie Condie, Music, Cless Frazier, Secretary-Treasurer, and Myrtie Lou Birely, Attendance Secretary.

Knowledge-seekers, going to the BYU for another school year, include Norma Hadley, Kendra Wincott, Sue Bailey, Sue and Tom Fife, Jerry Basinger, Lynette and Caroline Eyring, Jean Habekoss, Sunya and Sue Evans, Jerry Bramwell and Carl Johnson. Jean Tillotson will attend the University of Utah, Michael Tillotson, Yale, and Chuck Rose, Harvard Graduate School.

Robert and Nancy Austin, of Pasadena, California, and Myrle Lowe, formerly of Claremont Ward, are newcomers in Berkeley First Ward.

Our loss is someone else's gain as Dennis and Sonya Peterson leave for Provo, Utah, where Dennis will continue his studies and Sonya will work; as Kent and Rochelle Hilton leave with their daughter, Janelle, and their son, Paul, for Salt Lake City, where Kent will continue his studies; and as Ralph and Beverly Anderson and their children, Lynette and Ralph, Jr., leave for Sunnyvale, California, where Ralph will work for the United Technology Corporation, after completing his Ph.D work in the field of Chemistry at the UC here.

New in the office of assistant ward clerk is Reed Condie. Replacing Dennis Peterson in the Sunday School superintendency is Larry Peterson, who, in turn, will be replaced as teacher of the Gospel Doctrine class by Richard Anderson. Advancement from deacon to teacher was made by Steven Jacobs and James Strebel.

Eugene and Rebecca Jacobs are the proud parents of an almost-nine-pound son, Craig Harrison, born July 23.

Looking rested and refreshed after a two-week vacation trip to Hawaii are Ken and Minerva Bailey.

Our apologies to Bobby Basinger for not mentioning this sooner. This summer Bobby played on the Berkeley Babe Ruth League championship baseball team, the Fire Fighters.

A new Stake Missionary from our ward is Winnie Irving, who was released from the Sunday School for this calling. Winnie should be a real asset to the Stake Mission, as she has recently returned from a full-time mission to Mexico City. She is private secretary to Stake President O. L. Stone.

Interstake Center

Ballet Scheduled For Center Stage, Family Show

A holiday youth concert featuring the California Ballet Company has been scheduled into the Inter-Stake Center, Friday, December 9. The benefit performance for the missionary program is being sponsored by the 247th and 273rd Quorums of Seventy.

Currently on tour through Northern California, the dance company will present two of its most popular productions on the family program, according to Doyle G. Fullmer, 247th Quorum President. The ballet, "Beauty and the Beast" has been added to the repertoire and will share billing with "The Fantastic Toy Shop."

Miss Geraldine Uhlig, a member of the Oakland Third Ward and a leading Ballerina of the Company, will be featured in the romantic role of "Beauty." Miss Uhlig has been a star performer for the past five seasons with Mr. Raoul Pause's organization. She has appeared in the annual Berkeley Youth Concert and the summer series of the Oakland Light Opera Association at Woodminster.

WHOLESOME SHOW

Louis Johnson and Wilford W. Pennock, of the 247th and 273rd Quorums, were instrumental in arranging for the ballet company's appearance. "We were prompted into engaging the popular group because of the wholesome and cultural type of entertainment offered the entire family," said Mr. Johnson.

Tickets and additional information will shortly be posted, according to Vernon M. Olson, secretary. Donations have been modestly scaled at $1.00 for children and $2.00 for aduts.

The performances have been choreographed by Mr. Pause' and include some of the most spectacular costumes and scenes ever shown in the ballet medium. Mr. Don Ransom of Hollywood designed the costumes and sets—which are so elaborate and intricate—eleven scene changes had to be engineered in the hour-long production of "Beauty and the Beast."

Dilworth Young Speaker in S.F.

Elder S. Dilworth Young, a member of the First Council of Seventy of the Church will be the featured speaker Saturday and Sunday, October 1 and 2, during a quarterly conference of San Francisco Stake.

Sunday's general sessions, to which the public is invited, will be held at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Stake House, 22nd Avenue and Lawton St., San Francisco.

Concluding the conference will be Stake President Irvin G. Derrick, 408 Skyline Drive, Daly City, California.

Elder Young was a professional executive of the Boy Scouts of America for 22 years before his church appointment in 1945. He had also served as a missionary, and was president of the New England Mission from 1947-1951. He has traveled the Church widely encouraging priesthood and missionary activity.

Saturday evening meetings will be for lay church leaders, devoted to the Church's local and worldwide missionary program and the Church Welfare Plan.

ANCIENT TABLETS—Jose Davila pointing to his picture of the tablet on which he thinks the ten commandments are inscribed, during his talk to the High Priests' fireside of San Mateo, September 18.

San Mateo Stake

Jose Davila Tells Theory

"In 1842 Joseph Smith said that city of Zarahemla was in Guatamala . . . I believe the Hill Cumorah is in Tampico," said Jose Davila in his interesting talk to the San Mateo Stake High Priests' fireside, September 18.

Jose Davila is one of 12 assistants of the mission in Mexico which covers ten branches in the states of Vera Cruz and Tobasco. His work is that of a high councilman in this large area. He is a convert of 15 years standing and has spent ten of those years in an intensive study of the geography and archeology of Central America in relation to the Book of Mormon.

He was attracted to the Book of Mormon, he says, because it proved his ancestors had not lived like savages without religion for 4500 years before the Spaniards came, but that Christ had come to them and taught them.

In addition to his theory of the Hill Cumorah, which he asks his audience to take with a grain of salt, but nevertheless think about, he believes that the Maya language, which has never been deciphered, might some day be deciphered through the Bock of Mormon. It is a matter of transcribing the ideas in the pictograph and relating them to the hieroglyphs alongside. He has one tablet which he has ingeniously transcribed as the ten commandments. He emphasizes that this has not been studied long enough to be conclusive.

The large crowd that attended the fireside was a key to the interest there is in the subject of Central America. Mr. Davila plans other lectures in Menlo Park and Los Angeles before returning to Puebla, Mexico, where he and his wife, the former Hazel Stokes of Utah, have a business, the Tesoros Artisticos de Onyx, an onyx and tile manufacturing company.

Jose Davila is also a guide, the only licensed LDS guide in Mexico. He has guided archeological explorations for Dr. Milton R. Hunter, for the BYU and for others including the 1960 Book of Mormon Lands Tour, led by Burnett Hendryx, a member of the High Priests' Quorum of San Mateo, California. Mr. Davila will again accompany this tour, which is scheduled to leave Los Angeles by plane on January 28, 1961. The plane ride ends in Mexico City and from there the tourists are taken by car into the jungles of Central America, the heart of the Book of Mormon lands.

Following the testimonial service, a reception was held for David in the Cockett home.

New S.F. Stake House Nearing Completion

By John O. Beckon

On the corner of Brunswick and Hillside Blvd., from its vantage point on a hill, a new structure overlooking Daly City is being erected for the San Francisco Stake. It is being erected through the combined efforts of six wards and one branch. They share a joint responsibilty in raising an additional amount of funds and donating a substantial amount of labor to effect completion.

In the early days of San Francisco, Daly City had its own ward. They met together without the facilities of a building. As is customary in the church in situations of this kind, talk began of building a church. Some of the Saints who attended at this time will remember Sister Crossland who made the first donation, that of $5.00, to start the ball rolling. The original Bible and Book of Mormon used in this ward are still kept in the library of the present Stake House.

In 1929, under Bishop Pierson, the fund reached an amount of $750.00 which was later donated toward the organ for a newly completed building on Moss Avenue in Oakland. Since that time various amounts have been raised, some being donated to other buildings or to the stake.

When the Balboa Ward was divided two wards were made, Balboa and Balboa Second. At that time, under the leadership of R. John Cummings, Bishop of Balboa ward, and John O. Breckon, Bishop of Balboa Second ward, immediate efforts were made to raise funds for new buildings.

LOT SEARCH

During the next few years, the two wards searched diligently for lots that would be large enough for ward houses. It often became a discouraging task to find a lot large enough and in favorable location. It was at a joint committee meeting of the two wards that Williard B. Barton, now the new Bishop of the Balboa Ward announced that a lot large enough for a two-ward house had been found in Daly City. This was accepted by the two wards and with the Church approval the lot was puchased. A few weeks later President Lauper of the San Francisco Stake asked that the building include facilities for a new Stake House. This was done and a short time later excavation began.

ALMOST FINISHED

If you were to visit the site of the new building today, you would find it nearing the 75% completion mark. All of the main structure is up. It has taken on shape and personality as the workers have added finishing touches to the outside, such as the windows, stucco and redwood eaves. When this is completed, plastering will begin on the inside. After this, the final touches on the finishing woodwork inside the building will be done.

Much credit must go to Glen Nielsen who has been on constant duty as supervisor and to Bishop Williams of the Balboa Second and Bishop Chandler of the Balboa Wards. Under their direction these two wards have given well over 2,000 man-hours apiece.

FUNDS STILL NEEDED

Facing the Stake today is a yet unsolved problem, that of raising

Mountain View Ward

Los Altos Ward Splits Up, Loses Bishop To Mountain View

By Katherine H. Embry

Continuing growth of the Church on the Peninsula has resulted in the creation of a new ward in the Palo Alto Stake. The new ward, Mountain View, was created from the part of Los Altos Ward which was in the city limits of Mountain View. Los Altos Ward now is comprised almost entirely of residents of Los Altos.

Gerald W. Sharp, who had been sustained as bishop of Los Altos Ward on December 1, 1957, was released on September 4, 1960 when the ward was divided for the second time. He was then sustained as bishop of the new Mountain View Ward. Karl B. Eagar and Ted J. Crowther were sustained as counselors and Grant A. McGiven, Winston Allen, and Donald G. Judd as clerks.

Bishop Sharp, 31, a native of Salt Lake City, received his B.A. degree from the University of Utah. He was married to Marilyn Nordberg in the Salt Lake Temple and then went to the University of Wisconsin for graduate work in physics. He received his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees there. The Sharps came to California in 1953 to a job at Stanford Research Institute.

Bishop Sharp is now a scientist at Lockheed Missiles Division in Sunnyvale. He and his wife have two adopted daughters. He is the son of a bishop.

Karl Eagar, 32, first counselor, was born in Eagar, Arizona (a town founded by his grandfather). He was graduated from BYU in 1954 with a degree in accounting. He is sales representative for Pacific States Cast Iron Pipe Company.

Karl served a mission in the Texas-Louisiana Mission. He was married to Bernetta Nelson in the Salt Lake Temple. They are the parents of three sons and a daughter.

Ted J. Crowther, 23, second counselor, was born in Alamosa, Colo., but lived most of his life in Alexandria, Va. He and his wife Suzanne Nixon were married in the Salt Lake Temple in 1957. Both were graduated from BYU in June 1960; there they served a stake mission and were active in genealogy. They are the parents of one young son. Ted, also a son of a bishop, is an electrical engineer with Sylvania Electric in Mountain View.

Los Alto Ward

Los Altos Ward Gets New Bishop After Ward Split

By Dallas S. Burch

Palo Alto Stake president, David B. Haight, and the Stake High Council divided the former Los Altos Ward, of more than 900 members. Members who live in the general area of Los Altos now comprise a congregation that retains the same name: the Los Alto Ward. The new one, whose members are residents principally of Mountain View, is designated the Mountain View Ward. As shown by a map, distributed among the membership, the dividing line follows a course along El Camino Real, Springer Road, Covington Road, and Grant Road.

In announcing the need to divide the former large congregation, president Haight pointed out that a ward membership of moderate size—between 400 and 500—provides opportunity for greater individual activity than is possible in a large ward. To staff a fully organized ward, complete with its auxiliaries, he added, requires the services of more than 200 officers, teachers, committee members, and other workers. Accordingly the creation of a new ward means new opportunities for service and spiritual development.

NEW BISHOPRICS NAMED

The release of the former bishopric and the selection of two new ones followed. Gerald Sharp, former bishop of the Los Altos Ward was sustained as bishop of the new Mountain View Ward. As his first and second counselors he selected Karl Eagar and Ted Crowther.

V. Murray Richardson was chosen to be bishop of the Los Altos Ward, with LeRoy Kratzer and Emil Malmberg as his counselors.

Grant McGiven, former ward clerk, became clerk of the Mountain View Ward and Philip Monson became clerk of the newly organized Los Altos Ward. Each of the new officers spoke briefly.

Both wards will continue to meet in the Los Altos chapel, which is a two-ward building. A special news bulletin, distributed to all homes, announced a new schedule of meetings for each ward.

Elder Eicke Speaks In Religion Series

Elder Willis Eicke, first counselor in the San Mateo Stake Mission Presidency, was the guest speaker when Xi Zeta Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Sept. 21, at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Burlingame home of Miss Betsy Lyons, 1472 Drake Avenue.

Elder Eicke presented the season's first cultural program, "The Mormon Church" based on the club's study theme for the year, "Religions of the World."

Elder Eicke was the first of fifteen clergymen to address the group.

Thea Swenson New Primary Head; Many Honored for Long Service

By Vera Gibby

With the release of Connie Wells, Thea Swenson is the new Primary president with Marion Larsen and Diane Politis as counselors. Vera Gibby is the secretary. Thea Swenson has served as secretary of the primary for ten years.

Awards for years in service in primary were given to the following sisters; Rose Lefler, 20 years Thea Swenson, 15 years, Fae Peterson, 5 years, Louise Libby, 5 years, Mary Canning, 5 years and Vera Gibby, 5 years.

Friday evening, Aug. 19, the homebuilder classes gave a dinner and program honoring their mothers.

AWARDS GIVEN

The following girls received their certificates of graduation from primary; Sylvia Adams, Phyllis Jackson, Laraine Phibbs and Rebekah Swenson.

The boys of Troop 107 of Mission Ward received their Jubilee Camporee award. This was given to all who attended the San Francisco Stake Camporee held June 3 and 4, at Camp Lilienthal. The Camporee activities included an overnight camping trip, courses on the use of a compass, use of rope, axemanship and swimming. Each patrol cooked their own meals and did their part in setting up and maintaining a clean camp. The boys who attended were: James Apedaile, Richard Borrowman, Mark Butcher, David Canning, Duane Gibby, Ralph Miller, Jeffery Ochoa, John Politis, Armondo Quevedo, Tommy Reese, Michael Smith, James Thomsen and Ron McKuen under the direction of Scoutmaster Donald Jones with Robert Vaden assisting.

Sept. 9 and 10 eighteen fathers and sons from Mission Ward participated in an overnight outing sponsered by the Stake Aaronic Priesthood at Searsville Lake. There was a weiner roast with entertainment, games and swimming.

SEMINARY STARTS

The seminary has an enrollment of twenty students for the coming year. Last spring Melvin Barber, Sandra Boulter, Evelyn Draper, James Lamson, Carolyn Lefler and Ella Sessions graduated. All six graduates have enrolled for their fourth year. Conrad Barber is the teacher.

Myrtle Branson died Sept. 4. Funeral services were held Sept. 15, and the deceased was interred at Cypress Lawn cemetery. She was a former member of San Francisco Ward.

Babies blessed recently are: Sharlynne Craven, daughter of Norville and Joyce Craven. David Scott Lefler, son of Roger and Joan Lefler. Linda Anne Larson, granddaughter of Theodore Neil.

Constance Lee Woodmansee was confirmed.

Marion Samuelsen, daughter of Thomas and Donna Samuelsen, and Robert Taylor, son of George and Ellen Taylor, were married Sept. 3, in the Los Angeles Temple. A reception in honor of the young couple was held at Mission Ward Sept. 17.

Sharon Hunter, daughter of Gaurdello and Mae Hunter, and Fred Bryant, son of Elizabeth Benkoskey, were married Aug. 20, at Mission Ward by President Wallace Allred. A reception followed the ceremony.

Crystal Murphy was found unconscious by her landlady and was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Palo Alto Stake

Welcome Sign Now in Place At Rec Area

The Tri-Stake Recreation Area near Saratoga Gap in the Santa Cruz Mountains now has an entrance sign that does justice, both in size and attractiveness, to the Area's 550 acres of scenic beauty. Though the lettering is new, the sign's material is centuries old being a huge slab of redwood cut from a single giant tree. The slab is 20 feet long, more than 3 feet wide, and 4 inches thick.

Originator of this welcoming sign which informs visitors that "This is the Place" is Floyd Goates, general manager of the recreation area and a high priest of the Los Altos Ward. He first hand-carved the letters about half an inch deep with a chisel and then blackened them with a blow torch for greater visibility. The sign is now installed over the main entrance. It is supported by four large redwood poles, thus providing a further rustic effect in keeping with the wooded surroundings.

Elder Goates emphasizes that this sign has been erected so that visitors who are familiar with Church history may know they are entering LDS property, but the words are not the name of the Tri-Stake Recreation Area. Various names have been proposed, but the selection is still pending and is to be made jointly by representatives of the three stakes—San Mateo, Palo Alto, and San Jose—that own and are developing the area.

In a recent interview, general manager Goates mentioned several pressing needs so that more persons may enjoy their visits to the property. One need is for material that can be used in the construction of barbecue grills, since ordinary camp fires are, at present, too great a fire hazard and are not permitted. He welcomes especially concrete blocks, bricks, iron piping and iron grills. In addition he solicits willing and able manpower, both in groups or individually so that such construction and other needed developments can go forward more rapidly.

Hayward Stake

Mission Growth Told To Saints By Elder Hunter

By Nell Smith

A capacity congregation attended Hayward Stake quarterly conference last month in the East Bay Interstake Center. Elder Milton R. Hunter of the First Council of Seventy presided at the meetings with Stake President Milton P. Ream conducting.

The missionary theme of the conference was high-lighted by Elder Hunter's address on evidences of the Book of Mormon based on his own archeological studies.

Elder Hunter pointed up the fact that Hayward Stake offered a fine opportunity for missionary work with its population of 250,000 nonmembers. He said that in the last two weeks of August 1,750 missionaries were sent into the field and the program was being stepped up until 3,000 messengers of the gospel would be called each month.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Former Stake President Delbert Wright addressed the meeting and expressed his amazement and happiness over the large attendance at the conference. Hayward Stake comprises only half of the old Oakland Stake over which President Wright once presided.

Elder Lawrence Bates, Castro Valley Second Ward, recently returned missionary from Brazil told in his testimony of the hardships which the people of Brazil have to bear when they become members of the Church.

Sister Bertha Berger was released as Stake Primary president and Sister Mary Blazin of Castro Valley Second Ward was sustained as the new president with Sisters Dorothy Burbank and Maxine Hepworth as counselors.

Nina & Paul C. Richards

Berkeley Second

Nina Paulson Wed Paul Richards In Los Angeles Temple Ceremony

Los Angeles Temple was the setting for the marriage of the former Nina Paulson of El Cerrito to Paul C. Richards of Pleasant Grove, Utah.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jean R. Paulson of El Cerrito. Col and Mrs. S. R. Richards of Pease Air Force Base, Portsmouth, N. H., are the bridegroom's parents.

The Latter-day Saints Institute of Religion in Berkeley was the locale for the wedding reception. White satin bows and white bells, with masses of white flowers decorated the reception room, where Nina and Paul received wedding guests, and later cut their tiered wedding cake.

Nina's wedding dress was a floor length gown of lustrous antique brocade made en train. A rose of the gown's brocade decorated the hemline. The bodice was fashioned with scoop neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. A pearl-rolled headpiece secured her veil of illusion.

White orchids and stephanotis composed her shower bouquet, which was tied with white satin streamers.

ATTENDANTS

In attendant roles were Mary Ann Olson, the bride's cousin from Los Altos, maid of honor, and Susan Boyack of Temple View, New Zealand, Margaret Bodily and Vilate Gardner. Bouffant sheaths of velvet, the bridesmaids' dresses were deep rose, and the honor maid wore crystal blue. Their bouquets were cascade arrangements of white carnations. In rose velvet for her duties as flower girl was the bride's cousin, Vickie Ann Harris. White carnations filled her flower basket.

J. Douglas Paulson, of El Cerrito, the bride's brother, was Paul's best man.

Mrs. Paulson was in dusty rose faille, with which she wore an orchid corsage. Champagne-toned chiffon was Mrs. Richards' choice.

Nina and Paul spent their honeymoon touring California, after which they traveled to Provo, Utah, where their address will be 361 N. 3 East.

A Berkeley High School graduate, Nina attended San Francisco State College for two years before going to Brigham Young University, where her affiliations include A Cappella Choir and Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority. The bride will return to college classes where she is majoring in sociology with a major in music.

Paul prepared at Tamalpais and San Bernadino High Schools, and has attended Brigham Young for three years. He will continue his studies toward a degree in electrical engineering. The bridegroom has completed a two and one-half year LDS mission to Germany, and has served six months in the US Army.

Mr. and Mrs. S. LeRoy Richards of El Cerrito are his grandparents.

Gardner-Trussell Plans Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Reed S. Garlner of Berkeley 1st Ward have recently announced the engagement of their daughter Vilate to Mr. Harold J. Trussell of Montpelier, Idaho.

The engagement was made known to friends on Sept. 10, at a luncheon given at the Hotel Claremont by the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. C. S. Gardner of Oakland.

Miss Gardner graduated from Berkeley High School in 1953. She served as Girl's Association President of her high school and was very active in speech and dramatic activities. She was also a member of the Spartan club.

BYU GRADUATE

She graduated this year from the Brigham Young University. In college she traveled with the Student Program Bureau as an M.C.-director and entertainer. She was a member of the AFROTC Sponsor Corps and served as their Personnel Officer her senior year. Her activities in the BYU wards were MIA Drama director and Gleaner teacher.

The groom elect has attended the Utah State University for two years prior to fulfilling a West German mission. While on his mission he was supervising elder, branch president and district president. Upon his return he attended the Brigham Young University. He has been active in speech and debate work. Mr. Trussell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Trussell of Montpelier, Idaho. He is presently employed in Salt Lake City.

Brothers of the bride-elect are Reed P. Gardner of San Francisco, David P. Gardner of Orinda and James D. Gardner a student at Berkeley High School.

The couple is planning a January wedding. They plan to wed in the Salt Lake Temple.

My Testimony

By Mabel B. Liddell

Isaac B. Ball, Patriarch to the Oakland-Berkeley Stake, portrays by his own experience, how the scriptures may be the key to unlock divine power in healing our distressed minds as well as our bodies:

"During the 1930's I suffered a nervous breakdown and was in great misery for many months. All those who have had similar experiences will know the mind is in ferment and finds little peace, being filled with fears and troubles. At the same time, the spirit is dejected and comes under the scriptural phrase, 'the poor in spirit', being indeed dispirited.

JOB DIFFICULT

"During all this time I was teaching in a Junior High School, a position that calls for the best in health and spirits. It was with extreme difficulty that I carried on my duties. Some days I seemed hardly to know the way home after the fatigue and trials of the day. The problems of discipline seemed to multiply just when my own powers of control and good feelings were at their worst.

"One Saturday I seemed to be almost at the end of the rope. I was most miserable and seemed divested of hope, for the future looked bleak indeed. One can hardly be more depressed than I was at this time. I felt that I could scarcely go on, and still could see no way out of my dilemna. It was necessary that I teach, for we had my salary to live upon, but how could I continue to do this under the circumstances?

"As I sat and meditated upon the situation, I recalled the words of the Saviour, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart and ye shall find rest to your souls." I felt that I was in the class the Saviour was speaking to, for I certainly needed rest and peace, if any one ever needed them. So I decided to put this scripture to a test.

PRAYED IN ROOM

"I went upstairs to my bedroom and closed and locked the door. Then I knelt down by the side of bed and prayed to the Lord. I remember that I told the Lord that I knew that he was there with his beloved Son as truly as I knew that we were here upon the earth, because they had shown themselves to the Prophet Joseph Smith in this dispensation.

"I reminded the Father that his Son had given this promise to all those who were weary and heavy laden, namely that he would give them rest and peace if they would come unto him and learn of him, and that I felt in great need of rest and peace at this time. Therefore I prayed for an answer to my prayers and that I might have this rest and peace whch the Saviour spoke of.

"I continued for some time to press my case before the Lord in great earnestness and with some vehemency, for I told the Lord that I did not see how I could go on feeling as I had been of late. I repeated the plea and continued to remind the Lord that the Saviour had given this definite promise and that I knew they were both above me as truly as they were ever with this people.

SPIRIT OF REST

"As I continued to pray in full fervency unto the Lord — there came down upon me a spirit of great peace and rest. It seemed to go from the crown of my head to the very soles of my feet. I was filled with unspeakable joy and happiness such as I had never experienced in my life, even when well.

"I remember that I rose from my knees, thanking the Lord for the blessing, saying, 'This is wonderful'. I walked about the room praising the Lord, and thanking him over and over again.

"My testing of the Lord's promise had been successful I went downstairs feeling like a new man, feeling that I could meet the world again and fulfill my callings and duties. Of course I had to be patient until I could learn more fully how to maintain my health, but the spirit of rest and peace never left me again as they had done before. I had learned that we must keep closer to the Lord and take our problems to him. He loves us and will help us to overcome all our difficulties."

Education Vital to Youth

By Annette Morley

Now that most of us are well into the school year, much thought and concentration must be devoted to our studies. We as young people of the Church must set a good example for others. We must set our goals high and uphold the standards set for us.

We are the future of our country. It is important that we take an interest in the problems that face us today so we may be prepared for the future.

Knowledge is the key to the gateway of Heaven. If a person is diligent in learning all that he can, his blessings will be numerous. However, more important than this is the self satisfaction we receive by obeying the commandments of God.

EDUCATION PRICELESS

Education is priceless. Nothing more wonderful could be made available to anyone than the opportunities afforded us. "And, verily I say unto you, that it is my will that you should hasten to translate my scriptures, and to obtain a knowledge of history, and of countries, and of kingdoms, of laws of God and man, and all this for the salvation of Zion. (D & C 93:53)

University Ward

New Semester Turnover Large

By Anna Bushman

University Ward membership is in a state of change just now. People are returning, entering the ward, and leaving it. Here is a brief mention of a few of our new members: Trenton Allison of Susanville will be with us this year. He will attend The University of California. Shirley Euxton of Gooding, Idaho is entering the Graduate School of Social Welfare. Niles Lorence Carr, Jr. from Newhall will begin his work at Cal this fall. He will be working for a B.S. in Civil Engineering. Dale Godfrey from San Luis Obispo is enrolled in the Graduate School of Business Administration. He just returned from the British Mission.

Uwe J. and Louise S. Hansen are here from Provo, Utah, Uwe came to this country from Germany in 1951. He graduated from BYU in 1954, then served two years in the army. He was on a mission in Finland from 1957-1959 and did graduate work at BYU last year. He will be doing graduate work at UC in the physics department and working on his Ph.D. Louise graduated from BYU in music and has taught in elementary and high school. She was a member of the Utah Symphony Orcestra.

FRENCH AND RUSSIAN

Gary Lambert is from Stockton and is here at UC majoring in French and Russian. He just returned from the French Mission. Marilyn Richins from Susanville is a Freshman in the College of Letters and Science. She plans to major in History.

Tom and Norene Green and their young daughter left Sept. 8, for Provo. They will be dorm parents at one of the Heritage Halls. Tom will finish his school at BYU.

Bob and Naomi Wilson plan to move to San Jose in the latter part of September. Bob will attend school at San Jose State.

Royal and Joneal Daw moved to San Jose early in September. Roy is working for IBM there.

Several University Ward members and former members have received mission calls recently. Wydonna Bodily will enter the Mission Home in Salt Lake City Oct. 10. She will go to the Australian Mission. Bill Owens left Sept. 19, to go on a mission to France. Steve Roland has also been called to the French Mission. Gary Grant, Douglas Rose, and Robert Clark will also be going on missions in the near future. They do not, as yet, know where they will be called.

RENEE HUNT

Renee Hunt and Ralph Holding were married on Sept. 14, in the Los Angeles Temple.

Mae and Don Roberts are the parents of a son born Sept. 14, in the Alta Bates Hospital. He weighed 6 lbs. 15 oz. at birth. His name is Marc Donald. Mae's mother, Mrs. Judith Strand, is here from Ogden, Utah, staying with Mae and Don at this time.

Reed Probst was in Mexico City from Sept. 1 to 10. He enjoyed seeing the ruins and pyramids at Teotihuacan and Tula.He also saw some bull fghts and visited the silver city, Taxco.

Letters . . .

Ed. Note: This column will be a regular feature whenever we receive material worthy of public mention

Editor:

I am sure that there are many in the Northern California area who would benefit greatly from a question-answer section on geneaology in the Messenger each month. I am sure that there are enough qualified people in the area who could handle an assignment such as this very well. Is it a possibility?

Mrs. Darlene Johnson

Very possible. Questions and answers will be subject to space limitations, like everything else. We will refer all inquiries to someone qualified to answer, whether the subject be genealogy, flower arranging or anything in between. If the question is of sufficient interest, both question and answer will be published.

J. D. P.

Robert Wilson injured his back and was taken to the Alta Bates Hospital on Sept. 13. He has a dislocated vertabrae and is in traction. His condition has greatly improved and he expects to be released from the hospital in a few days.

Sunset Ward

September Takes Sunset Students Back to University Studies, Fun

By Jean Lauper

September saw many of the Sunset Ward young people off to school. Dr. John and Therma Roberts took their daughter Carolyn and Nancy Thomas to the Brigham Young University. Also attending there this year are John Storheim, Cherry Evans and Karen Ray. Linda Johnson, after a summer at the BYU has gone to the University of California at Berkeley for her second year there. Carolyn Bates, a newcomer to the ward, is returning to Mills College in Oakland. Jane Roehl is at the College of Southern Utah at Cedar City.

A loss to both ward and stake is the removal of Don and Roxie Bybee to Salt Lake City to make their home.

To balance the ones who leave are the young people who come each fall to make their homes here. George Hilton and his wife Yvonne and 3 children will be here for several years while George studies medicine at the University of California Medical Center.

Dr. and Mrs. Homer H. Clark have come from Salt Lake City. He is a pathologist at St. Josephs Hospital. They have 3 small children.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hales with their two children are making their home here while Dr. Hales is specializing in Ophthalmology at the University of California and Ft. Miley V. A. Hospital. They are Utahns who have spent some time in San Antonio, Texas, and New York City where Dr. Hales was a flight surgeon at Mitchel Air Force Base. Sister Jeanette Hales has been called to be president of the Primary.

Philip Jenkins has been made superintendent of the YMMIA with Leonard Clove as a counselor and Don Sheldon, secretary.

S.F. STAKE HOUSE

sufficient funds to complete the building. The money coming in for the project has declined sharply. A Stake Dinner under the joint efforts of the various Elders Quorums just helped by raising $2,900.

What will having this new building mean to the Saints in San Francisco? It will mean having the distinction of being able to meet in an attractivve and well-planned building, the largest the Church approves, except on a tri-stake basis. It will have 25,000 square feet of floor space, as compared to the 18,000 square feet usually approved.

With the combined efforts of all of the Saints in San Francisco, the Stake hopes to be able to avail themselves of the facilities of this building by March of 1961.

Alameda Ward

Craig Howard, 10, Killed by Truck Is Tragic Mishap

By Lue Seavers and Donna Rice

Brother & Sister Harold B. Price and family of Alameda Ward lost their son, 10 year old Craig Howard, in a tragic accident. He was riding his bicycle and was struck by a pickup truck. Craig's funeral service was held at the ward chapel Sept. 13. His grandparents, Elder Howard P. Price and wife, came from Florida, where they are on a mission, to attend the funeral and be with their son and family. Their home is in Idaho Falls.

Nathan Tolman suffered a heart attack which has made it necessary for him to give up managing the apartments on South Shore. He did the landscape gardening which is a treat to see. Nathan and LaRee will return to their home in Berkeley. We will miss them. He was released from being Senior Aaronic Priesthood Secretary and Brother Call was sustained in his place.

Rollin Smith hasn't been with us for many months because of illness.

Tom Winkel will be home this year for the first time in four years and will be attending college in San Francisco.

SERVICEMEN

Bishop Nicolaysen reminded the ward of the good fortune of having a number of service men and their families living here. He asks that each member do his part in making them feel welcome and make it a point to get acquainted with them.

The Elders Quorum had a social Sept. 21, consisting of a dinner and movie aboard the USS Ranger stationed at Naval Air Station Alameda. The Elders and their wives (or girlfriends) were guests of Commander Call who recently came into Alameda Ward with his family.

Alameda Ward's first Relief Society president, Sister Katie Hunt, celebrated her 80th birthday Saturday, Sept. 17. Her three daughters-in-law, Norma, Ida, and Bee Hunt had a party at the ward recreation hall in her honor where many of her old friends greeted her.

RESTAURANT CHANGE

James and Emmy Stam are taking over Theron Hatch's restuarant on Encinal Avenue. We hear Emmy is a good cook; now is our chance to get a good home cooked meal in a restuarant.

Theron Hatch has moved to Lake Tahoe where he bought a motel. His son Tom is on a Swiss-Austrian Mission.

Roland and Donna Rice and children are vacationing in Idaho and Utah.

Walter and Vera Soots spent their vacation in Utah. Walter spent two weeks and Vera a month.

The Relief Society opening social was held Sept. 27.

The ward bazaar will be held Nov. 4. This will give everyone time to get a "bundle" of money saved to spend that night.

The Senior Aaronic Priesthood course is being offered for a period of twelve weeks each Wednesday evening. The members of the senior Aaronic Priesthood and their wives are invited to attend by those in charge of the course.

MASTER M-MEN

Larry Vincent, formerly of the Alameda Ward, was presented the Master M-Men award and pin at Oakland-Berkeley's evening session of Conference.

Elder Johnson was transferred to Oregon to continue his labors in the mission field. Replacing him is Elder Fronk, who will be Elder Forward's companion.

Elder Richard Carlen's farewell testimonial will be Oct. 9, prior to his departure from Alameda Ward to labor in the Brazilian South Mission. He enters the mission home Oct. 16.

The ward property next door to the Chapel has been renovated and equipped with new class chairs and black board and is in use for Seminary class, and fireside gatherings.

There are a number of students leaving the ward to attend the BYU. Ralph and Erma Lane will accompany their daughter Pat to Provo. Mary Margaret Howland's parents will accompany her. Dr. Charles Eliason and Dorothy will also accompany their daughter Judy. The parents say "The girls have so many belongings they have to drive them." There are also three young men going, Rodney Pockock, Douglas Gardner, and Allen Hunt.

Sam Gardner and family have recently moved into the ward. Brother Gardner is Field Executive of the Boy Scouts.

Hayward Ward

Puddings Ready For Bazaar Store

Bishop McClellan reports that the carrot puddings are all done and ready to be sold in the "General Store" at the annual Hayward Stake Bazaar, which is to be held Sept. 30, Oct. 1, and Oct. 3.

He also stated that ward members will be called upon to participate in canning tomatoes soon. This year, there will be three shifts of four hours each. These will start at ten in the morning, two in the afternoon, and six in the evening. The Stake expects to can approximately 50,000 cans of tomatoes. This will include solid pack and juice.

Sister Nadine Smith, ward education chairman, states that Seminary is now in "full swing." Classes are held every school day morning at 6:45 in the Hayward Ward, and all Church members of high school age are encouraged to attend. Wards attending this Seminary are Hayward, Hayward Second, and Hayward Third. Sister Margaret McClellan, Max Blair and Rex Pinegar are the instructors.

Sister Smith states that social activities are held from time to time during the year, and that definite plans are now being formulated for a social activity in the near future.

At this time of year many of the young people return to college. Among those going to school this year are: John Jansen and Judy Ahlin—University of California; David Wegman, Michael Lyon, and Bernard Stewart—San Jose State; Trina Phister, Sheldon Mc Clellan, Charlene Mc Clellan, Tom May, Judy Shumate, Judy Tanner and Bonnie Taylor—Brigham Young University. Lorraine Linnell, San Mateo; Roy Dahle, Coalinga; Walter Duncan, Stanford; Clarence Edner, Cal Poly; and Gwen Newton, Woodbury.

The new Primary President for the ward is Sheryl Bohn. Her counselors are Tyyne Carlson and Marge Simard. Her secretary is Babara Fought.

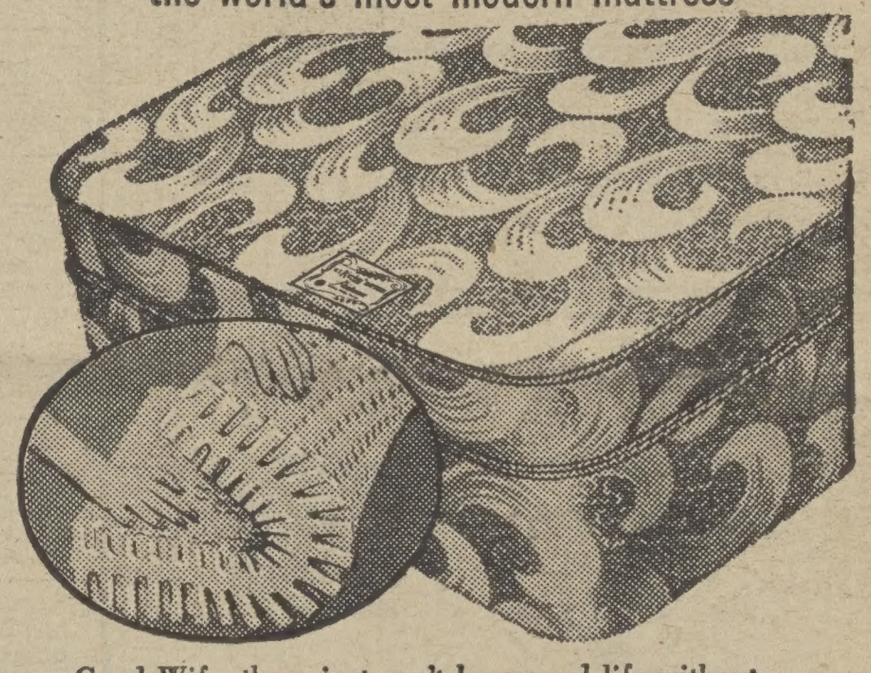
THE GOOD WIFE

gives her family the good life with our

U.S. KOYLON® FOAM

the world's most modern mattress



Good Wife, there just can't be a good life without a good night's sleep, and that calls for U.S. Koylon. For Koylon is more than foam! It's the finest foam, made with thousands of small cores on both sides, top and bottom, with the result that it has more "give" to cradle every body curve . . . and yet, more firmness, too. A combination that even the experts thought impossible! Come see the difference in a Koylon mattress by U.S. Rubber.
